

BREAK THE DIVIDE

PRAIRIE CLIMATE EDUCATION & RESILIENCE PROGRAM

The Prairie Climate Education and Resilience Program is a free school-based initiative led by Break The Divide (BTD), a non-profit that helps young people navigate the emotional and social impacts of climate change. Through interactive workshops and youth-led facilitation, the program supports students in grades 7-12 in Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba in building resilience, understanding climate emotions, and taking action in their communities.

Program Structure

Two sessions (60 minutes each) delivered by trained youth facilitators. Sessions are discussion-based and aligned with curriculum outcomes.

Session will be delivered either remotely or in person, depending on location and facilitator availability.

Lesson #1 - Understanding Climate Change and Our Local Environment

Lesson #2 - Climate Emotions and Taking Action

Students will have the opportunity to sign up for a monthly Climate Roundtable to continue their learning.

Timeline Snapshot

The program will run from October - December 2026

Teacher Testimonials

"I definitely recommend this program to other teachers, schools, and classrooms that really want to take more initiative in climate change action."

- Teacher (Grade 7)

"For the first time, students were able to recognize and identify certain emotions that go hand-in-hand with climate change that they haven't thought of before. They also really enjoyed the artistic components that were included in the workshops."

- Teacher (Grade 11)

Student Testimonials

"Before this program, I felt so lost and scared about the future. Now, I see that we can use these emotions to connect and create change."

- Student, Grade 11

"I'm kinda bummed these sessions are over." - Student, Grade 7

"I feel it was good to learn from new people plus, it was really good."

- Student, Grade 7
